Happy Chinese New Years!

Chinese New Year 2023 will fall on Sunday, January 22nd, 2023, starting a year of the Rabbit.

Chinese New Year is the festival that celebrates the beginning of a new year on the traditional lunisolar Chinese calendar. It was traditionally a time to honor deities as well as ancestors, and it has also become a time to feast and visit family members.

Chinese New Years Traditions:

- People clean their houses before the Spring Festival, which symbolizes sweeping away the bad luck of the preceding year and making their homes ready to receive good luck.
- Honoring the dead is a Chinese New Year's tradition that's kept to the word.
- The Chinese New Year's Eve dinner is called a 'reunion dinner.' Big families of several generations sit around round tables and enjoy the food and time together.
- Chinese New Year is a season of red envelopes (or red packets, lìshì or lai see in Cantonese). Red envelopes have money in them and are often given to children and (retired) seniors.
- The red envelope (money) is called ya sui qian (压岁钱 /yaa sway chyen/), which means 'suppressing Sui [the demon]money.' Those who receive a red envelope are wished another safe and peaceful year.
- From public displays in major cities to millions of private celebrations in China's rural areas, setting off firecrackers and fireworks is an indispensable festive activity. It is a way to scare away the evil and welcome the new year's arrival.
- Lion dances and dragon dances are widely seen in China and Chinatowns in many Western countries during the Lunar New Year period. They are performed to bring prosperity and good luck for the upcoming year or event.

Tips to Take Care of YOU during the Winter Season

Life can be a little stressful when working full-time, caring for loved ones, or being a full-time student.

Here are a few simple, stress-free tips*:

- Prioritize “me time.”
- Practice self-control when it comes to food
 - Get plenty of sleep
 - Enjoy quality time with loved ones
- Stay active and find ways to occupy your time
 - Plan ahead to avoid last-minute stress
- Cold weather can cause dry skin; moisturizing can prevent dry skin on our faces and hands.
- Take your pets on a walk and enjoy the enjoy with them

December Guest Reviews!

Delamar West Hartford

Impeccable service, I travel a lot for work and often it is hard to relax away from home but not at Delamar.

"I travel often for work, and everyone who does this knows it is stressful at times and being away from home can be tough, but at Delamar the service and staff is always amazing. The balcony in my room as really relaxing, the food was amazing and I loved the Christmas decor!"

Old Hollywood glam

"The hotel is beautiful. The staff were extremely friendly and the room was clean, spacious, and luxurious. The drinks at Artisan were delicious. If we were there for another night we would have sat by the fire outside, but sadly we were only there for one night. We did not want to leave."

Delamar Southport

Always a great experience

"This hotel is a wonderful place to stay. The dining is top shelf too. It is incredibly quaint, yet plush and classy at the same time. Your arrival begins with a glass of champagne and just continues to get better from there."

Absolutely loved this quaint Hotel

"This hotel was so pretty and so quaint! I can't wait to go back! The restaurant was excellent! The staff was so nice. Very nice for a romantic weekend or any occasion! I highly recommend this beautiful hotel!"

Delamar Greenwich

Perfection!

"My husband and I are small business owners and we took our team for an overnight at the Greenwich Delamar hotel followed by spa treatments for everyone the next morning. Words cannot emphasize how truly amazing the experience was. We were all treated so well, the rooms were beautiful, and the spa was perfection!! The lobby is decorated so beautifully for the holidays. We will be back!! A special thank you to Kayla, McKayla and Stephanie - these girls made sure every little detail was taken care of. Thank you!!"

Five Star Accommodations

"The hotel is charming and elegant. The staff is exemplary: helpful, friendly and very accommodating. The location is perfect. It is by far the nicest hotel I have ever stayed in! I highly recommend this hotel."

Food was great! Good portions and great flavors! Staff was friendly and attentive. I asked them to bring the check out quick because we had a concert to go to and they brought it right away at the conclusion of our meal. Will definitely come here again!

Longshore

★★★★★ Reviewed On 1/08/2023 by Paola D

We had an absolutely magical experience at Longshore for our wedding. It was everything we had envisioned and more! The venue is just stunning and we got many compliments on the amazing location, views, food, etc. My dream was to get married by the water, and even being a winter wedding, it was still possible at Longshore! We even had a beautiful sunset behind us during the ceremony. So dreamy! Laina our coordinator was beyond amazing! I'm not sure how she does it, but she remembers every detail we discuss and ensures our day goes smoothly and as envisioned. From our first meeting, we knew we were in great hands with Laina. She is super detail oriented and the day of we were so relaxed and able to enjoy every moment knowing that everything was going to go just fine. Highly recommend Longshore for your wedding! La Plage

We went to La Plage for our anniversary celebration and were delighted with the service, food, and ambiance. It was just after Christmas so the decorations added that extra sparkle - but so simple and elegant. We had crispy goat cheese, grilled calamari, halibut, fish and chips and lobster bisque - all phenomenal. I cannot recommend highly enough. Make a point to visit this restaurant in 2023. It is so worth it.
